§ 742.34

be allowed for shrinkage while the cottonseed is in storage, such shrinkage to include loss caused by natural drying out of the cottonseed, but in no event shall the total amount of shrinkage exceed 5 percent of the weight of the cottonseed at the time it entered storage. In case no agreement as to shrinkage has been made, the difference in the moisture content of the cottonseed at the beginning of the storage period and at the time of delivery shall form a basis for calculating shrinkage.

§ 742.31 Care of cottonseed in storage.

Each warehouseman shall at all times exercise such care in regard to cottonseed in his custody as a reasonably careful owner would exercise under the same circumstances and conditions. He shall also equip his warehouse with thermometers to determine the temperature of the cottonseed while in storage and shall make readings of the thermometers with such frequency as the Administrator or his representatives may direct, and permanently record the same, but in no event shall such readings be made less frequently than every third working day. If the cottonseed attains a temperature of 110° F. the warehouseman shall immediately take such action as is necessary to lower the temperature. If the depositor of the cottonseed or any other person to whom he may have transferred title or interest in the cottonseed desires to make temperature determinations he shall be permitted to do so in company with the warehouseman or the warehouseman's representative.

§ 742.32 Care of nonlicensed cottonseed, or other commodities.

If, at any time, a warehouseman shall handle or store cottonseed otherwise than as a licensed warehouseman, or shall handle or store any other commodity, he shall so protect the same, and otherwise exercise such care with respect to it, as not to endanger the cottonseed in his custody as a licensed warehouseman or impair his ability to meet his obligations and perform his duties under the act and the regulations in this part.

§ 742.33 Records to be kept in safe place.

Each warehouseman shall provide a metal fireproof safe, a fireproof vault or a fireproof compartment in which he shall keep, when not in actual use, all records, books, and papers pertaining to the licensed warehouse, including his current receipt book, copies of receipts issued and canceled receipts, except that with the written consent of the Administrator, or his representative, upon a showing by such warehouseman that it is not practicable to provide such fireproof safe, vault, or compartment, he may keep such records, books, and papers in some other place of safety, approved by the Administrator or his representative. Each canceled receipt shall be retained by the warehouseman for a period of six years after December 31 of the year in which the receipt is canceled and for such longer period as may be necessary for the purposes of any litigation which the warehouseman knows to be pending, or as may be required by the Administrator in particular cases to carry out the purposes of the act. Canceled receipts shall be arranged by the warehouseman in numerical order and otherwise in such manner as shall be directed, for purposes of audit, by authorized officers or agents of the Department of Agriculture.

§ 742.34 Warehouse charges.

A warehouseman shall not make any unreasonable or exorbitant charge for services rendered. Before a license to conduct a warehouse is granted under the act the warehouseman shall file with the Administrator a copy of his rules and a schedule of charges to be made by him if licensed. Before making any change in such rules or schedule of charges he shall file with the Administrator a statement in writing showing the proposed change and the reasons therefor. Each licensed warehouseman shall keep exposed conspicuously in the place prescribed by § 742.7, and at such other place, accessible to the public, as the Administrator or his representative may from time to time designate, a copy of his current rules and schedule of charges.

§ 742.35 Business hours.

(a) Each licensed warehouse shall be kept open for the purpose of receiving cottonseed for storage and delivering cottonseed out of storage every business day for a period of not less than six hours between the hours of 8 a.m. and 6 p.m., except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section. The warehouseman shall keep conspicuously posted on the door of the public entrance to his office and to his warehouse a notice showing the hours during which the warehouse will be kept open, except when such warehouse is kept open continuously from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.

(b) In case the warehouse is not to be kept open as required by paragraph (a) of this section, the notice posted as prescribed in that paragraph shall state the period during which the warehouse is to be closed and the name of an accessible person, with the address where he is to be found, who shall be authorized to deliver cottonseed stored in such warehouse, upon lawful demand by the depositor thereof or the holder of the receipt therefor, as the case may be.

§ 742.36 Numbered tags to be attached to cottonseed.

Each warehouseman shall, upon acceptance for storage of any lot of sacked cottonseed, immediately attach to such lot a tag of good quality which shall identify the lot. Such tag shall show the lot number, the identification mark on each bag, the number of the receipt issued to cover such cottonseed, the number of sacks in the lot, the grade, if determined, and the gross § 742.37 Identification tag.

Each warehouseman shall so store each lot of cottonseed for which a receipt under the act has been issued that the tag thereon, required by § 742.36, is visible and readily accessible, and shall arrange all bags in his licensed warehouse so as to permit an accurate count thereof.

§ 742.38 Grade and weight determinations.

Each licensed warehouseman shall accept all cottonseed for storage and shall deliver out of storage all bulk cottonseed, other than specially binned or sacked cottonseed, in accordance with the grade of such cottonseed as determined by a person duly licensed to grade such cottonseed and to certificate the grade thereof, and in accordance with the weights of such cottonseed as determined by a person duly licensed to weigh such cottonseed and to certificate the weight thereof, under the act and the regulations in this part, and in accordance with the agreement regarding shrinkage as shown by the terms of the receipt or in the absence of such agreement in accordance with § 742.30.

§ 742.39 Bulk storage of identity-preserved cottonseed.

Upon the acceptance by a licensed warehouseman, for storage in his licensed warehouse, of any lot of bulk cottonseed the identity of which is to be preserved, he shall store, or cause to be stored, such cottonseed in an individual bin or compartment designated by lot numbers or letters, or other clearly distinguishable words or signs, permanently and securely affixed thereto, or shall so mark the container or containers of such cottonseed or so place the cottonseed in the warehouse that its identity will not be lost during the storage period.
